

Buyer's List

Please tell us about the home that you are looking for and we will immediately notify you via e-mail when properties become available that meet your criteria. No obligation!

If you would like to be among the first to know about new properties as they become available, please join our Buyers E-Mail list. We will automatically send you information on every property we acquire that meets your needs. You will have all of the information before it is seen in the paper or in some cases before we even put up the "For Sale" sign in the yard. Sound interesting?
